WHAT DOES SCODY STAND FOR?

SCODY stands for “Sporting Concepts of Distant Years” which embodies our emphasis on research and development and guides us in our pursuit of performance.

Beyond that, SCODY at its core strives to make people happy through exercise. It is about happiness from being part of something, from belonging, from challenging yourself, from looking good, feeling good and performing at your best.

We work with our sponsored athletes, teams, events and sporting regulators to promote exercise and activity throughout the community.

We supply high-quality performance wear and provide support through our communication channels to encourage activity throughout the broader community.

AUSTRALIAN MANUFACTURER

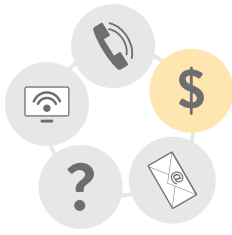

We pride ourselves in being one of the few local sports clothing manufacturers who still produce clothing in Australia. This allows unparalleled quality, production speed and innovation.

We develop our own patterns based on research, development and testing. We source the best fabrics from all over the world to construct garments with an edge. We don't just put our name on someone else's product.

By creating our own garments we understand our clothing and are constantly adapting and improving our products. We respond to feedback and testing to ensure that our garments help athletes perform at their best.

Our garments are made from our own patterns and you will get the same size every order. We have advanced colour management systems which ensure you will get the same colour every order. Our team work hard to ensure your order will be delivered on time, every time.

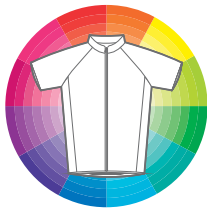

YOUR ORDER PROCESS
